

Aa

Addington CF

BEST PRACTICES

Addington CF is built for use at small to medium sizes, in print and digital environments. Its middle weights are designed for use in longform text, articles, books, footnotes, and documents. The thicker weights can double as headlines, subheadlines, and captions, especially when tracked tightly, while thinnest weights shine at very large sizes – great for wordmarks and posters.

FOUNDRY	DESIGNER	CLASSIFICATION
Connary Fagen, Inc.	Connary Fagen	Transitional

FAMILY Aa

Seven weights of roman designs, each with a complementary italic, for a total of 14 styles.

Légendaire

Leonard Bernstein & THE NEW YORK Philharmonic

Debussy: La Mer

Dialogue of the Wind

Op. 32 Suite for Large Orchestra

A New Standard

ROOTS

Addington CF is an original design by Connary Fagen created in 2016. 16th century old style typefaces and the later transitional period provided foundational inspiration. The desired effect was a pleasant, beautiful typeface that worked hard and got out of the way, quietly elevating and uplifting any work Addington is used in.

FONT FACTS

- Addington is Connary Fagen's second serif typeface release after Quincy CF, building on the experience learned from Quincy's development.
- Addington is the name of village England. The name was chosen for this typeface for its pleasant sound and imagery, matching the look and feel of the typeface.

LEGIBILITY

Addington CF was designed for text use, and reads well at small to medium sizes. Moderate stroke contrast and a balanced x-height help make Addington a reliable workhorse in text-heavy applications.

VERTICAL STRESS

OLD STYLE SERIFS

Typography

CALLIGRAPHIC TOUCHES

MILD STROKE CONTRAST

SHORT DESCENDERS

HOW TO SPOT

a Teardrop terminal on lowercase a, c

fr Long, flat terminals on lowercase f, r

Th Optional ligatures including "Th" and "fi"

fi Ornate italics with calligraphic influence

& Italic ampersand retains traces of Latin 'et'

ALTERNATE CHOICES

Artifex CF

Artifex Hand CF

Garamond

Novaletra Serif CF

PERFECT PAIRINGS

Articulat CF

Criteria CF

Cygnat CF

Greycliff CF

